

Tour 3 - Volcanoes and Lakes in the Shasta Cascade

This 3-day tour will acquaint you with Shasta and Tehama counties, located in the Central Valley of Northern California, and with Plumas County, located in Northeastern California where the Sierra Nevada and Cascade mountain ranges meet. Redding is the center of commerce in the Shasta Cascade region and is the beginning of this tour. You will learn about the area's history and tour private businesses and landmarks along the route. You will also visit Lassen County if you take Option 2 on Day 3 of the tour.

See the sights of the North State, explore Lassen National Volcanic Park, and visit charming mountain towns along an All American Road.

Day 1 - Redding to Chester

Redding is the largest California city north of Sacramento and is the hub of Shasta County. Among the many visitor attractions is the Sundial Bridge at Turtle Bay Museum, and an eight-mile scenic hiking/biking river trail. Nearby Shasta Lake, the "Houseboat Mecca of the West," is one of the best fisheries in the state.

 Shasta Dam Tour travel north 12 miles on I-5. Take the Shasta Dam Blvd. off-ramp and follow it west 5 miles to the dam. The tour of Shasta Dam is offered Wednesdays through Sundays (winter hours) at 9 a.m., 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m., and more often and daily during summer, (530-275-4463). Allow 1 hour for the tour and 45 min for the Visitors Center, where there is an informative exhibit about the dam and its construction. Travel back to I-5 and head south.

 Depart Redding. Travel south on Hwy. 99 to Red Bluff (38 miles).

Tehama County, located at the northern end of the Sacramento Valley, retains a strong western heritage. It was home to the first and only president of the California Republic, William B. Ide. A variety of outdoor recreational opportunities exist from the Sacramento River up into the rolling foothills and all the way to Lassen Volcanic National Park. Red Bluff, the county seat, has a variety of homes in the Victorian style, including the classic two-story Kelly Griggs House, built by non-conformists from the 1860s. The town also has several antique stores.

Kelly-Griggs House Museum in Red Bluff

Attractions available in Red Bluff:

Kelly-Griggs House Museum - (530-527-1129) 311 Washington St. Allow 45 min. Thur. - Sunday, 1-4pm, group tours at other times by appointment.

Self guided Victorian Tour of historic Red Bluff features over 12 homes. Visit the various antique shops along the route. (Allow 2 hours.)

Lunch in Red Bluff: All are within walking distance of the museum.

Cowgirl Cafe (530-529-9488) 200 S. Main St.

Palomino Room (530-527-5470) 723 Main St.

Riverside Bar and Grille (530-529-9453), 500 Riverside Way

Depart Red Bluff. Travel south 3 miles on Hwy. 99, then turn east onto Hwy. 36 and drive 70 miles to Chester.

Plumas County is located in northeastern California, where the Sierra Nevada and Cascade mountain ranges meet. It boasts more than 100 lakes, 1,000 miles of streams and over a million acres of forestland. With only eight people per square mile, this rural four seasons mountain retreat offers beauty, solitude, clean air, and an unhurried pace. Off the beaten path, it's not crowded with tourists. You'll find plenty of attractions and things to do in this undiscovered part of the state, with year-round events, scenic drives and even a state and national park.

Lake Almanor and Chester offer year-round recreation, and the area serves as a gateway to Lassen Volcanic National Park. Almanor offers spectacular views of majestic Lassen Peak.

 Depart Chester

OPTION 1

 Return to Red Bluff traveling east on Hwy. 36, then north on I-5 to Redding. (110 miles) to conclude the 3-day tour.

OPTION 2

 Visit Lassen and Shasta Counties Travel this stretch of scenic highway, recently named an All American Road. Just west of Chester, the town of Westwood is a historic company logging town with a large statue of legendary logger Paul Bunyan. Continuing on, the journey takes you through Lassen National Forest and to the north entrance of Lassen Volcanic National Park.

 Travel east 28 miles on Hwy. 36 to Hwy. 44. Turn left (west) on Hwy. 44 which continues to Redding. This 87-mile section from Chester to the north entrance of Lassen Volcanic National Park has been designated an All American Road. Continue west 47 miles on Hwy. 44 back to Redding (162 miles) to conclude the 3-day tour.

NOTE: Off-season business hours vary. Many local restaurants and attractions are happy to accommodate groups during non-business hours by advance appointment. Contact the sites prior to planning your tour to ensure a positive travel experience.
